We would like to encourage you to take up a unique opportunity that will give you a competitive edge over your peers. By joining this very progressive organization on your campus, you will, over and above your formal university education, also gain valuable practical experience that will sharpen your leadership, communication, teamwork and other success skills. This program visibly grows self-confidence, as Enactus students tend to be business-minded success-oriented individuals with a strong work ethic. This results in the development of higher levels of self-efficacy, self-confidence and self-esteem – that is crucial to employability.

Enactus is an international non-profit organisation active on 1,600 university and college campuses globally. It brings together student, academic and business leaders who are committed to using the power of entrepreneurial action to improve the quality of life and standard of living for people in need. In South Africa, this organization has presence on all 23 public and 5 private higher education institutions.

Guided by academic advisors and business experts, the Enactus Teams create and implement community empowerment projects around the globe. The experience not only transforms lives, it helps students develop the kind of talent and perspective that are essential to leadership in an ever-more complicated and challenging world.

Your participation in Enactus will provide you with many opportunities to make a meaningful difference in your community, while gaining the experience, skills and business connections necessary to build a successful career.

Enactus students are talented, hardworking, value-driven leaders that blend a competitive spirit and desire to succeed with a sense of integrity and desire to give back. Through empowering others, our students gain a practical understanding of how market economies work and develop a culture of ethical business conduct and corporate social responsibility. It also enhances one's confidence, while advancing teamwork, leadership, problem-solving, communication and business skills.

As a member of an Enactus team, you'll be joining a worldwide network of more than 66,000 students who are each making their own contribution toward our shared mission of creating a better world for all. It's an experience that will change the lives of those in need and most definitely your own as well.

We want to encourage you to see this as a unique opportunity to prepare you for the world of work. Kindly contact the Enactus team Faculty Advisor, at your institution and contribute to shaping a better, more sustainable world.
